Order's Alimony-After hearing testimony on the order to show cause in the divorce case of Lillie A. Jones against William A. Jones, Judge N. J. Harris this morning ordered that the defendant pay $25 a month alimony and $75 attorney fees.

Work Resumed-The snow storm of this morning abated sufficiently before the noon hour to permit steel workers and riveters to resume operations on the Eccles skyscraper. Other outdoor work in the building line was continued during the day.

In Salt Lake-Mrs. T. E. Black is visiting relatives and friends in Salt Lake. She will not return home until after Thanksgiving Day.

Going to California-Thomas R. Beason, manager of the Vineyard Land & Livestock company, and wife, depart for California this afternoon on an extended visit. Mr. Beason will visit his brother, Charles, who is in a hospital in San Francisco.

Lecture-The first class in eugenics under Professor Titus of the Agricultural college will meet at the Ogden high school tomorrow night at 7 o'clock.

False Alarm-The fire fighters from Station No. 2 made a run to the corner of Twenty-fourth street and Jefferson avenue at 11:10 last night, which proved to be a false alarm.

Inferior Teas-Acting on instructions from the state board of health, City Sanitary Inspector George Shorten is making a crusade of cheap brands of teas found to be artificially colored and of poor quality.

QUEER PRANK PLAYED BY A BOLT OF LIGHTNING

While firing the furnace in the basement of the Standard building at 8:30 this morning, Eli Blakeley had the shovel he was using wrenched from his hands by a bolt of lightning which entered through a drain pipe.

There was a brilliant display of light and the janitor for a moment thought the "devil," who is known to invade printing offices, was in hot pursuit of him. He gave a shout and had started out the front door when the shock ended and he regained his self-composure.

DISPUTE OVER LESS THAN THREE FEET OF GROUND

In the case of the D. H. Peery estate against Rufus Ford, the defendant has filed his answer in the district court claiming adverse possession of the property in controversy and also denying the ownership by the plaintiff.

The suit was instituted to quiet title to a small piece of ground less than three feet wide and only about 66 feet in length, lying immediately south of the Ford property on Hudson avenue, between Twenty-fourth and Twenty-fifth streets.

HORSE TURNS A SOMERSAULT

Pedestrians near the Broom hotel corner about 1:10 p. m., were startled to see a horse, attached to a lumber wagon, turn a somersault on the pavement. The animal had either tried to dodge or else had become entangled in a fallen trolley wire and made the turnover in a second's time.

The driver, who had seen the wire just as the horse struck it, climbed out of the wagon at the rear end and with the assistance of bystanders, cut the harness that held the horse, made temporary repairs, and soon the outfit was on its way.

Deaths and Funerals

M'BRIDE-At 9 o'clock this morning Miss Nellie Leone McBride, 13-year-old daughter of Reuben C. and Nellie Dean Croft McBride, succumbed to leakage of the heart. Death occurred at the family home, 807 21st street. Funeral services will be held from the Fourth ward meeting house Sunday at 12 noon, Bishop E. A. Olsen presiding. Remains may be viewed at the home tomorrow evening and Sunday until 11:30 a. m. Interment in Ogden City cemetery.

FOOT Beauty

It is the Shoe that makes your foot beautiful.

The woman who puts her feet into a pair of shoes purchased here will have reason to be proud of their neat, stylish appearance. We want to impress upon your mind the advantage to you in wearing good quality footwear.

You can waste money on shoes as quickly as on anything-perhaps quicker. Shoddy materials that look like leather are made up over stylish lasts and the shoes have a fine appearance-the price is very low and you buy a pair.

One week's wear proves better than words how expensive it is to buy these cheap shoes.

Our shoes may not be cheap in the first price, but the long wear, better appearance and the complete satisfaction you get out of every pair makes them the cheapest shoes you can buy.

Don't forget when buying your shoes to look into the quality of the leather they are made of, and the workmanship.

The fall and winter styles are in. Come and see them. Try them on. You will find here the very latest models in all the leathers and materials that will be fashionable during the winter months to come. We particularly want you to see any try on some of the many new styles in our famous makes of shoes. Our display of these new models is now ready. Come early and take plenty of time to make your choice.

Fashionable boots for Ladies, $2.00, $2.50, $3.00, $3.50, $4.00, $5.00, $6.00.

It's not the guarantee that makes our shoes so dependable, it's the goodness of our shoes that makes a guarantee like ours possible.
